

Methodology Secondary Level 2

Lecturer: Daniel Crump

Overview: Methodology involves the application of Kodály's principles to the development of classroom teaching programmes that are suitable for Australian children. The Secondary Level 2 stream will outline repertoire, strategies and teaching process for introducing a developmental, aural/vocal-based music programme in the middle secondary school years.

Dates: Block 1 (5 days): Monday 13 April to Friday 17 April 2015
Block 2 (5 days): Monday 28 September to Friday 2 October 2015

Time: 10.30am – 1.00pm (delivered in conjunction with the Materials and Teaching Techniques course components)

Venue: Presbyterian Ladies' College (room to be announced)

Time Commitment: In addition to the daily classes (total 15 hours), participants will need to put aside time to for reading and assignment tasks. The time needed to do this will vary for each person but 30 minutes per day is recommended as a minimum.

Materials: Students will need to bring an A440 tuning fork, pencil, eraser, manuscript and notebook. Students also need to acquire the set texts as detailed below. The lecturer will provide all other materials as necessary.

Set Texts:

- Johnson, J. (1988). Music for all. Clayfield School of Music.
- Choksy, L. (1999). The Kodály Method II. Prentice Hall.
- Klinger, R. (1990). A guide to lesson planning in a Kodály setting. Clayfield School of Music.

Course Content:

Students will investigate curriculum development for middle secondary school years through an in-depth study of the following:

Rhythmic Concepts:	- The Anacrusis – external and internal - Uneven rhythmic patterns over two beats, including:  ;  . - Uneven rhythmic patterns over one beat, including  and . - Strategy outlines for Compound Time  ,  ,  and .
Metre:	- Review of simple metre time signatures including 2/4, 3/4 and 4/4 - Compound Duple Time 6/8
Pitch and melody:	- Extended pentatony – l, and s, - Abstract Pentatonic tri-chords and tetra-chords and the intervals they contain - Relative pentatonic scales and extended pentatony - Strategy outlines for f and t - An introduction to diatonic scales
Part Work:	- Diatonic canons in up to 4 parts - Melodic and rhythmic ostinati - Two part exercises – for example – Kodály Choral Repertoire - Ensemble singing/playing to reinforce repertoire used. - Strategies to introduce sing and play exercises at this level
Harmony:	- Use of the pillar tones outlining chords I, IV, and V in major and minor tonalities - Root position triads in major and minor tonalities and their quality
Other:	- A review of focus teaching and its relevance to strategy writing. - An introduction to the cambiata (changing) voice and strategies for working with this in the classroom. - An extension of tone-set analysis and its application to diatony - Visual and aural analysis of Folk and Art music - An investigation of the sequence of teaching for elements at this level and its implication to long range planning for the middle secondary school. - Activities to develop improvisation and compositional skills - Strategies to teach form/genre suitable to the middle secondary school - Repertoire suitable for the teaching of these concepts and elements. - Continuing a Folio Song Collection and Retrieval File: Collecting, sequencing, analysing and categorising songs, games and rhymes

Outcomes:

- Students will demonstrate their ability to provide a good teacher model.
- Students will demonstrate a growing knowledge of the abilities and requirements of middle secondary students.
- Students will discuss, communicate ideas and display an awareness of developmental sequencing appropriate to middle secondary music education.

Assessment:

- A demonstrated in-depth knowledge of Kodály's educational philosophy through individual research and group discussion
- Written and/or practical lesson segments demonstrating an understanding of the particular steps in the teaching of a concept/element covered in class
- Lesson planning
- Memorisation of repertoire
- Writing exercises
- Listening exercises
- More complex song analysis

Assessment will be marked according to the following matrix (taken from the Australian Kodály Certificate Curriculum 2013).

1.1.1. Secondary Level 2 Teaching Techniques

Lecturer: Daniel Crump

Overview: Teaching Techniques (Secondary Level 2) involves the practical application of the musical and pedagogical concepts taught in Methodology (Secondary Level 2). Sensitivity to the musical content is essential throughout the teaching process. Students will be given the opportunity, not only to teach, but also to observe and discuss segments they see taught.

Dates: Block 1 (5 days): Monday 13 April to Friday 17 April 2015
Block 2 (5 days): Monday 28 September to Friday 2 October 2015

Time: 10.30am – 1.00pm (delivered in conjunction with the Materials and Teaching Techniques course components)

Venue: Presbyterian Ladies' College (room to be announced)

Time Commitment: In addition to the daily classes (total 5 hours), students will need to put aside time to for preparation of assignment tasks.

Materials: Students will need to bring an A440 tuning fork, pencil, eraser, manuscript and notebook.

Course Content:

- An introduction to peer teaching.
- Peer teaching of repertoire appropriate for preschool and middle secondary school years.
- Peer teaching of the lesson segments covered in Secondary Level 2.

Outcomes:

- Students will demonstrate their ability to provide a good teacher model
- Students will demonstrate a consistent confidence in the repertoire and the teaching techniques under discussion
- Students will demonstrate a basic ability to plan lesson segments that show an understanding of the requirements of children of the target age group.

Assessment:

- Students will teach sufficient segments to satisfy the course provider of their competency.
- Peer discussion and analysis of demonstrated techniques.
- Willingness of the student to act as the “teacher” and the “student”.

Assessment will be marked according to the following matrix (taken from the Australian Kodály Certificate Curriculum 2013).

Secondary Level 2 Cultural Materials

Lecturer: Daniel Crump

Overview: Cultural Materials (Secondary Level 2) involves learning, collecting and analysing the folk music of Australia and other nations to determine its suitability for pedagogical processes outlined in methodology and its ability to support the acquisition of musicianship skills in an aural vocal developmental music programme.

Dates: Block 1 (5 days): Monday 13 April to Friday 17 April 2015
Block 2 (5 days): Monday 28 September to Friday 2 October 2015

Time: 10.30am – 1.00pm (delivered in conjunction with the Materials and Teaching Techniques course components)

Venue: Presbyterian Ladies' College (room to be announced)

Time Commitment: In addition to the daily classes (total 5 hours), students will need to put aside time to for memorisation of repertoire and preparation of assignment tasks.

Materials: Students will need to bring an A440 tuning fork, pencil, eraser, manuscript and notebook.

Course Content:

- An investigation of the various categories of songs, rhymes and games which are appropriate to middle secondary years
- Analysis of suggested material with guidelines to help teachers choose wisely for this age group.
- Songs, rhymes and recorded music of other cultures
- Songs, rhymes and recorded music that allow young children to respond to a variety of moods.
- Listening songs
- The beginning of a system for organising and storing a professional library of the above materials such as a song file and retrieval system.

Outcomes:

- Through performance of the repertoire students will memorise a body of material suitable for this age group and be able to demonstrate it musically and confidently.
- Through analysis, students will begin to understand the attributes of appropriate resources for students and how to choose effective material for their programmes.

Core Songs:

“Core Song Material” for the Cultural Materials course for Secondary 2 participants is available on the KMEIA WA AKC website. Other supplementary material will be sourced from the Methodology Secondary 2 set texts or provided. The lecturer will outline other supplementary material during the course. Core repertoire must be filed and analysed to form part of the Song Retrieval System.

Additional Songs will be made available to participants as determined by the Course Provider and Lecturers.

Assessment:

- Song analysis
- A written test that requires the student to write out set materials and to discuss their use in a middle years secondary setting.
- Assessment will be based on punctual class attendance, the student’s willingness and preparedness to participate and on all written and practical assignments.
- Demonstration that the song file and retrieval system has continued to develop.
